DEATH

Places Its Icy Hands Upon J. W. Wiley

City Official Striken at Breakfast Table

EX-STREET COMMISSIONER

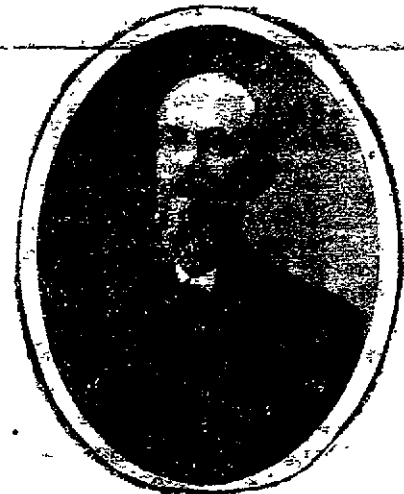

And Member of Board of Public Service Was Sud- denly Called Wed- nesday Morning.

The funeral of Mr. J. W. Wiley, who died suddenly this morning, will take place at the family residence Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The entire city was deeply shocked on Wednesday morning by the announcement of the sudden death of James Wiley, one of the best known and highly respected men in Newark, for six years street commissioner and at the time of his death a member of the Board of Public Service.

For a long time Mr. Wiley has suffered with heart trouble and those who knew him intimately were convinced that it would ultimately result in his death. In fact for years he has been afflicted to some extent with heart disease, which at times became acute.

On Tuesday morning while sitting in his office at the city building, Mr.

JAMES W. WILEY.

Wiley suddenly fell forward at his desk, his head on his arm and groaned as if in mortal agony. Assistant City Auditor Ralph Davis went to the stricken official and asked if he could do anything to relieve him. Mr. Wiley replied that nothing could be done, and he soon revived. After signing up the pay rolls and transacting some other official business, Mr. Wiley left the office for his home. He did not return in the afternoon but remained at home. Mr. Ralph Davis is of the opinion that Mr. Wiley had a premonition of his approaching death, as he remarked on Tuesday morning: "Well, Ralph, I won't be here long."

On Wednesday Mr. Wiley arose as usual and went to the barn where he fed the horse and returning to the house sat down to eat his breakfast. His wife asked him if he felt ill, and he replied that his left arm gave him considerable pain, but no worse than usual. He then took a dose of medicine, which he has been using for his heart trouble and suddenly, without a groan, fell to the floor dead. His wife sprang from her chair and began using restoratives, while a messenger was dispatched for Dr. C. A. Hatch, who lives near the Wiley home. All efforts to resuscitate availed nothing, as the vital spark had fled. The deceased had for a long time complained of the pain in his left arm which seemed to be the principal source of his frequent discomfort.

The deceased was born in Newark 42 years ago, and has lived here all his life. When a very young man he enlisted in the 76th regimental band, his official war record reading as follows:

"James Wiley enlisted at the age of 21 years as a musician (alto horn) in the 76th Ohio Volunteer Regimental band, and was mustered into service by Colonel Charles R. Woods, who commanded the 76th regiment, at Camp Sherman at Newark, O., Feb. 6, 1862. He was mustered in with company G, as a private, under Capt. James Stewart. Nov. 26, 1863, was transferred to the 76th regimental band Jan. 4, 1864, and was mustered out with company G, 76th regiment,

CONFLICTS ARE RAGING IN POLAND STRIKERS AND THE TROOPS CLASH

Warsaw, Feb. 1.—The governor general has placarded the city with bills warning the revolutionists that under the state of siege which exists any one perpetrating lawless acts will be shot and the conspirators will be hanged or imprisoned.

Conflicts are raging in other towns of Poland. At Pabance they attempted to destroy the police headquarters with dynamite and looted the residences of leading citizens. At Plock a mob stormed the police station, shot two officers and four policemen and plundered the shops of many Jews. An attempt was made to dynamite buildings at Sedlee. At Pultusk gendarmes met the mob parading the streets and in driving the populace home killed 18 and wounded 28. A mob at Znielz plundered a number of shops and in the ensuing fight with the police several officers were injured. Strikers at Logz, Pabance, Znielz and surrounding districts today planned to assemble at six points and march against Skierniewice and burn the Czar's palace there. The plan failed as troops repelled the strikers.

O. V. I. at Louisville, Ky., by Capt. Wm. L. Alexander, captain of the 30th Iowa Volunteer Infantry, and A. C. M., 1st Division Fifteenth Army corps, after an honorable service of three years, eight months and twenty-nine days. He participated in all the engagements with the 76th regiment, from Fort Donaldson, Tenn., Feb. 14, 1862, to Bentonville, N. C., March 21, 1865.

There was no more popular man in the city than "Jim" Wiley, as he was known to his legion of friends. He was a Republican in politics but never evidenced an offensive partisanship. He was elected three terms as street commissioner, and two years ago was elected a member of the Board of Public Service. At the time of his death he was the only Republican holding an elective office in Newark's municipal government, an evidence of his magnetic personality and congenial nature.

His official record is without a stain and the breath of scandal or official misconduct never touched the name of James W. Wiley. In every relation of his useful life as husband, father, brother, or friend he was governed by his high sense of honesty and rectitude.

His sudden death has been the subject of many a conversation today and his name was never mentioned except it was accompanied by eulogiums. In Mr. Wiley's death the city has lost a conscientious and very capable official, his family a thoughtful, loving head, while every one who knew him has lost a true friend.

Mr. Wiley was a member of Lamer Post G. A. R., and the local bricklayers' union. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Miss Alice, one brother, Henry Wiley of Buffalo, N. Y., and one sister, Mrs. Charles H. Hindel of Newark.

MAYOR CRILLY

To Name Mr. Wiley's Successor After the Obscures—City Hall in Mourning.

The question of James Wiley's successor on the Board of Public Service will not be taken up by Mayor Crilly until after the obsequies.

The City Hall is in mourning today. The office of the Board is darkened, and no business is being transacted there. The shades are drawn, and as one enters the city building he realizes that every official is taking to heart the death of James Wiley.

Some of the comments of those who are in Newark's official family are testimony of the esteem in which he was held.

Mayor Crilly said: "There was never a man more honorable and capable in the city's service. I take 'Jim' Wiley's death as a personal bereavement."

Auditor Maurath said of the dead official: "Honest purposes and the ability to execute any mandate of the council were his characteristics. We all respected and honored 'Jim' Wiley."

Miss Follett, assistant in Auditor Maurath's office, said: "He was the most gentle of men, always frank and honest."

J. P. Lamb and Sid B. Livingston, conferees of the deceased on the Board of Public Service are stricken with sorrow over the death of their friend and co-worker.

T. M. Ball of the Board of Public Safety said:

"We have lost a man who was valuable to the city, and a most genuine gentleman."

The office on the Board made vacant by the death of Mr. Wiley, will be filled by an appointment of Mayor Crilly's. The Mayor said when asked as to the probable successor:

"I am now mourning my friend's death. I don't know whom I will appoint."

GORKY NOT IN DANGER

St. Petersburg, Feb. 1.—The report that Maxim Gorky may be hanged for high treason is without the slightest foundation. Even his friends declare the rumor absurd. The expectations is that he will be released in a few weeks.

He was a member of the deputation of editors and literary men who called on M. Witte, president of the committee of ministers, January 21, all of whom were arrested, but several of whom have already been released. The only one charge against Gorky is that he was a member of the committee of three, which was appointed to collect funds for the strikers.

Strikes Confer With Governor.
London, Feb. 1.—A St. Petersburg correspondent today wires that representative workmen of all the big factories are conferring with Governor General Treppoff.

Next Monday the government will meet all the masters and representatives of the men with a view to granting the workmen freedom of meeting and to bring about an end of the strike.

This conciliatory program has been drawn up by General Treppoff and M. Kokomtsoffs, minister of finance. The aim is to wean the men away from their political aspirations.

DISORDERS QUELLED

Traffic Partly Restored in Warsaw.
Strike is at an End in Other Points.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 1.—There has been a suppression of disorder in Warsaw and traffic has been restored so far as to permit the arrival of some supplies of food. In other industrial centers, including Moscow and St. Petersburg, the strike is practically at an end. Grand Duke Vladimir, in the course of an interview, intimated that the people of Russia would soon be given a measure of representative government, although he declared that anything like general suffrage was not to be considered. The committee of ministers discussing the proposed reforms has published a report with the purpose of showing the people that the plans outlined in the imperial decree of Dec. 26 are being carefully considered.

An unconfirmed report is in circulation that it has been officially ascertained that the discharge of crime from a sailing ship during the ceremony of the blessing of the waters on Jan. 19, and which imperiled the lives of the emperor and members of his family, was a deliberate act of the terrorists, there being a private soldier of the 1st Life Guard battery.

Grand Duke Vladimir, uncle of Emperor Nicholas, and commander of the imperial guard, has submitted to an interview.

"With this strike war upon our shoulders we are passing through a crisis. I have not attempted to conceal it, but with the help of God we will emerge from it as we have emerged from other crises in the past. In continuation on page 6, 10th col.

FATHER GOPON LEADER OF STRIKERS REPLIES TO THE GOVERNOR GENERAL

(Bulletin.)
St. Petersburg, Feb. 1.—Father Gopon, the leader of the strikers, has issued a proclamation in response to the one issued by Governor General Treppoff several days ago, which influenced a majority of the men to return to work. Father Gopon's statement is in the nature of a demand backed by a threat. It reads:

"Your manifesto placarded on the streets of St. Petersburg, persuaded the strikers to resume work because you promised to investigate conditions of labor and introduce necessary reforms.

"What has happened? The workmen have been deceived. Although they resumed work, they are arrested by the wholesale, in workshops and at home.

"The Government has broken its word. It persecutes the workmen instead of protecting them.

"Where is the protection promised? Where are our rights that were guaranteed?"

"Answer, or you will find the consequences disastrous."
(Signed) "GOPON."

Paris, Feb. 1.—A manifesto was posted on the doors of the labor exchange and on the walls in all quarters of Paris today calling on the anarchists of the city to stand by their colors. The manifesto which was signed by a group of anarchists, read:

"Comrades, we have work to do as well as the Russians, in tirelessly destroying governments, nations and castes.

"We rise against all authority, police, armies, morals, laws and codes.

"Down with God.

"Down with the state.

"Down with society.

"Down with rulers.

"Thanks to the efforts of comrades, anarchy is born from corpses.

"Tomorrow, insurrection will proclaim individual liberty.

"Progress marches."

Practically all of the anarchists of the city are to hold a meeting at Kerher Hall tonight. The Free Masons, however, have offered their temple where the meeting will be held.

There are lots of Hochs besides me. The story that I'm a 'bluebeard' is all foolishness. I'll make somebody feel cheap when I get back to Chicago and prove I'm innocent. I never had but two wives in my life. A detective then asked the prisoner why he had taken the name of Bartels when he came to New York. 'I expected there would be trouble about the $2,000 worth of furniture I left when she died,' he said. 'Her sister wanted more of it than was her share. When I was arrested here I thought it was on account of the furniture.'"

MITCHELL

Senator from Oregon is Indicted

Land Fraud Investigated by Government

SPECIFIC CHARGES ARE MADE

Against the Western Senator But Not in Case of Mr. Binger Hermann.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 1.—The federal grand jury returned true bills in connection with the investigation into the land frauds which, it is alleged, have been perpetrated upon the United States government. The first indictment is against United States Senator John M. Mitchell, Congressman Binger Hermann, S. A. D. Pater, Horace G. McKinley, Emma L. Watson, Daniel W. Tarpley, Elbert K. Brown, Nellie Brown (his wife), Henry A. Young, Frank H. Walgamot, Clark E. Loomis and Salmon B. Ormsby. They are charged with having conspired on Feb. 1, 1902, to defraud the United States government of public lands located in township 11 south and range 7 east by preparing and signing affidavits as to the occupation and settlement of these lands. Senator Mitchell is specifically charged with having at Washington, D. C., on March 2, 1902, unlawfully prepared an affidavit for Emma L. Watson to sign, in which Mrs. Watson truthfully swore that she was a bona fide settler on a portion of these lands. It also charges that Senator Mitchell prepared unlawfully an affidavit for S. A. D. Pater to sign, in which Pater is alleged to have sworn that he knew that the contents of the Watson affidavit were true. The indictment charges that Mitchell received as a compensation for his alleged services the sum of $2,000 paid to him by Pater. The indictment goes on to state that in pursuance of the conspiracy Senator Mitchell introduced Pater to William A. Richards, as the commissioner of the general land office at Washington, stating that Pater was one of the most honorable citizens in the state. No specific charge is made against Mr. Hermann, as is done in the case of Senator Mitchell.

The indictment has the two-fold object of connecting Brown and his wife with the case and removing any illegality that might have occurred when Messrs. Mitchell and Hermann were first indicted. At that time Mr. Henry was assistant United States district attorney, and for fear that he might not be treated with ample authority to, of his own volition, cause a legal indictment it was thought best to re-indict under the same charges. The first indictment, it is believed, will be quashed.

It is an action to recover from defendant and his bondsmen about $5,000, alleged to be due Licking county on account, as the petition charges, of having, while county commissioner, let out contracts for county work for a larger sum than what the work, by judicious management, could have been done for. The Philadelphia Record has this to say:

"No," says the Czar, "I cannot see any good in popular government. Look at Philadelphia. Popular government was proclaimed in Philadelphia in 1776. But now? How is it now? My brother Durham is Czar in Philadelphia. My brother Fanny-packer wishes to cut off the heads of editors and nail them to the front door of Independence hall. Durham is all right. Fanny-packer is all right. I am all right. Q. E. D."

This sounds like humor, but unhappily there is a very serious side to it. Government in the interest of the people is a mockery in the city where the greatest movement for the benefit of the people was inaugurated. Under the shadow of Independence hall, where the foundations of honest and popular government were laid, the grossest violations of the rule of the majority and of liberty to assemble and freely discuss political affairs have been perpetrated. If reform in Russia should mean the giving to the people of that country a rule like that which has made Philadelphia a disgrace among the cities of the world, then the benefits of the change would not be very apparent. — Pittsburgh Post.

Judge Wing based his decision on the ground that the franchises which the city council granted the Forest City railway company, January 11, 1904, for the operation of 3-cent fare lines over the Woodland and Central routes of the present company constituted an impairment of contract rights belonging to that corporation.

DRUNKENNESS A TERRIBLE DISEASE

COUNTRY CLUB

WILL BE ESTABLISHED BY ELKS
AT ZANESVILLE

Along the Licking River at a Point
Easily Reached by the Electric Car Line.

Zanesville, O., Feb. 1.—A country club with a membership limited to members of B. P. O. Elks, is to be established along the Licking river, from three to eight miles distant from the city and within easy reach of interurban travel. Enough supporters of the project have already been secured, assuring its successful launching and with the opening of spring weather ground will be broken for the club house, providing a suitable site can be secured at an early date.

C. O. Stewart and W. C. Hanks are the most prominent promoters of the plan. A club house of at least 20x50 feet in dimensions is planned. This has not yet been determined upon as the size will depend wholly on the number of members who finally join the club.

Within the club house will be a ball room, ample in size to accommodate at least 15 couples. A kitchen with range and all modern utensils for serving a social luncheon, together with cold storage facilities, will be provided. Rustic benches and finishings will dominate throughout the club house.

The site to be chosen will be one near a pool in the Licking river where good bathing is assured. Good fishing prospects will also be investigated in the selection to be made. On the plot of ground a tennis court will be made and golf links are probable. Quoits and croquet, baseball and other outdoor sports will be made possible.

It is not planned that anyone shall be stationed at the club house. Officers will be elected by the stockholders and it may be that in time the company will be incorporated. The plans now are that a country club be secured where any number of members can go at any hour in the day, on the interurban, take a cook along, and enjoy the privileges of the club house and grounds.

So I got a 50c. bottle, the last the druggist had. When it was used I was doing well, and the doctor said to get another. I improved so fast I was soon able to take another case of nursing. (Signed.) Appropriated by the Government to be Spent at the Charleston Navy Yard This Year.

Messrs. Bolton and Wilcox have received the amount of government appropriations that has been set apart for the Charleston Navy Yard for this year and this enormous sum is to be expended there this year. Work has been progressing rapidly at the yard since the visit of these gentlemen there last November. Five new buildings have been started and others are to be started soon. These gentlemen have the assurance of Admiral Endicott that five hundred mechanics will be sent there in October of this year. There is no one interested in this proposition except Messrs. Bolton and Wilcox, and this land will be devoted to them in its simple upon the completion of their agreement on April 1. There is absolutely no scheme back of it, the proposition is as good as it is, and they only desire the opportunity of showing the people of Newark how good it is, and subscribers may make any investigation that they may desire. Building mechanics should call at their office, 14 1/2 North Second street. Their office will be open every night from 7:30 to 8:30.

It is estimated that the total area for farming interests in the United States is 1,000,000 acres and area larger than England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, France, Germany, Austria, Spain, Italy and the Transvaal. There are 1,000,000 persons engaged in agricultural pursuits, while other industries employ but 1,500,000.

CAMBRIDGE

HAS A MRS. CARRIE NATION WHO SMASHES SALOON WINDOWS.

Woman Wields Club and Departs in Silence—Three Big Panes Are Broken.

Cambridge, O., Feb. 1.—Considerable excitement was created at the corner of West Whooling avenue and Fifth street by the sound of heavy blows against glass and the tinkle of fragments as they fell to the pavement below. At first those in the neighborhood were at a loss to know what was taking place, but it soon became apparent that a woman with a large club was industriously engaged in smashing in the windows on the Fifth street side of the Delmonico cafe. Almost as quick as it takes to write it, the woman had completed her task and departed, after which it was seen that she had demolished the large glass in three of the windows on that side of the building. After accomplishing her work of destruction the woman hurried away without saying a word to the crowd that had gathered around her.

After investigating the unusual occurrence it was learned that the woman responsible for the broken windows had previously called at the cafe and asked if her husband was there, and on receiving no reply went to Chief Blair and informed him of the matter. She was told to go to Mayor Smallwood, but before the warrant was completed, she said that she would wait a day or so and try to get more proof against the man. She then started for home, but as she passed the cafe she became enraged and picking up a club in the street, started in on her work of demolishing the windows. An effort was made to keep the matter quiet and the glass in the window was replaced as soon as possible. So far, no arrests have been made.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HOME

Are Never Without Pe-ru-na in the Home for Catarrhal Diseases.

Remarkable Cures
Effected
By Pe-ru-na.

Under date of January 10, 1897, Dr. Hartman received the following letter: "My wife has been a sufferer from a complication of diseases for the past twenty-five years. Her case has baffled the skill of some of the most noted physicians. One of her worst troubles was chronic constipation of several years' standing. She was also passing through that most critical period in the life of a woman—change of life.

In June, 1895, I wrote to you about her case. You advised a course of Peruna and Manalin, which we at once commenced, and have to say it completely cured her.

"About the same time I wrote you about my own case of catarrh, which had been of twenty-five years' standing. At times I was almost past going. I commenced to use Peruna according to your instructions and continued its use for about a year, and it has completely cured me. Your remedies do what you claim for them, and even more."—John O. Atkinson.

In a letter dated January 1, 1900, Mr. Atkinson says, after five years' experience with Peruna:

"I will ever continue to speak a good word for Peruna. I am still cured of catarrh."—John O. Atkinson, Independence, Mo., Box 272.

Mrs. Alla Schwandt, Sanborn, Minn., writes:

"I have been troubled with rheumatism and catarrh for twenty-five years. Could not sleep day or night. After having used Peruna I can sleep and nothing bothers me now. If I ever am affected with any kind of sickness Peruna will be the medicine I shall use. My son was cured of catarrh of the larynx by Peruna."—Mrs. Alla Schwandt.

Why Old People are Especially Liable to Systemic Catarrh.

When old age comes on, catarrhal diseases come also. Systemic catarrh is almost universal in old people.

This explains why Peruna has become so indispensable to old people. Peruna is their safeguard. Peruna is the only remedy yet devised that entirely meets these cases. Nothing but an effective systemic remedy can cure them.

A reward of $10,000 has been deposited in the Market Exchange Bank, Columbus, Ohio, as a guarantee that the above testimonials are genuine; that we hold in our possession authentic letters certifying to the same. During many years' advertising we have never used, in part or in whole, a single spurious testimonial. Every one of our testimonials are genuine and in the words of the one whose name is appended.

DAIRYMEN

Will Use Pumps but Not to Water
Their Product—A Proposed Pipe Line.

Carlisle, Pa., Feb. 1.—A. G. Miller, of Carlisle, counsel for the Pennsylvania Farmers' Condensing company, which has lately bought 13 large dairies hereabouts and built a big experimental plant at Shippensburg, this county, stated in argument in court here that if his clients were not disturbed by petty suits their plan was to establish pipe lines running to certain large cities, through which the daily supply of milk from the rural districts would be forced to metropolitan consumers in manner similar to the present method of pumping oil over long lines. Philadelphia is 125 miles away, and Baltimore 70. The company believes the milk trains which run often from 150 to 200 miles to the large cities are unnecessary. The company's plant has been declared a nuisance because it was built partly over a public road, but it is likely that after yesterday's announcement the company will meet with little opposition.

Court Enjoined.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 1.—The Kentucky court of appeals granted a temporary writ of prohibition against Judge Watts Parker of the Fayette circuit court, restraining him from proceeding under the indictment recently found in that court against James Harris and others, charging complicity in the murder of Tom Marshall, Sheriff of Jackson, and from attempting to take the persons charged into custody pending final action by the court of last resort here. The court then set the case down for oral argument before it on Friday, Feb. 3, and will pass finally on the motion of the persons charged for a permanent writ of prohibition.

Rexall "93" HAIR TONIC

In these days when youth is the moving factor—when man has made his mark at thirty-five and is dubbed a "has been" at forty; when business houses pension the man we used to call "middle aged," rather than allow his lagging influence to intrude upon the modern commercial rush—a bald head is a serious handicap.

In the social world it is equally bad for a man, while for a woman—it is fatal.

Few people can afford a bald head. Even those who can—those who are fixed socially, financially and matrimonially—have no wish to do so. But afford it or not, thousands of us are bald, either partially or wholly.

What caused baldness—whether an inherited tendency; whether through undue mental effort, sickness, dandruff or other scalp disease—makes no difference. What we want is HAIR.

Millions of dollars have been spent in vain efforts to grow hair on bald heads. Other millions have been spent in an effort to restore faded gray hair to its natural shade, and still others to banish dandruff. And still dandruff declined to disappear; hair refused to grow; lost tints of brown, blonde and auburn failed to return.

All this, however, is of the past. Failures have given place to success. A real hair tonic has at last been found.

REXALL "93" HAIR TONIC is a positive cure for all hair and scalp troubles. It is not sticky or gummy, will not thicken on hair, does not become rancid, has no disagreeable odor. It is clean, agreeable and pleasant to use.

REXALL "93" HAIR TONIC

Cures all cases of dandruff, falling hair, irritation of the scalp, baldness, premature fading, scanty growth, and all those annoying affections of the scalp which scientists have found to be due to the presence of microbes. REXALL "93" HAIR TONIC restores the hair by first killing the microbes, by supplying a nutritive food element upon which the injured hairs may feed and regain health and strength by cleansing the scalp and strengthening the hair follicles. It assists nature to restore the color by making the hair healthy and enabling it to draw its own coloring matter from the pigment glands in the scalp. It is not a dye.

Remember that dandruff is proof positive that microbes are at work on the roots of your hair. Then is the time to buy a bottle of REXALL "93" HAIR TONIC and begin treatment. Don't wait until you are bald.

"GREATLY ADDS TO BEAUTY."

"I can most highly recommend Rexall '93' Hair Tonic as the best of preparations for the preservation of the hair and the promotion of its healthy growth. It not only preserves the hair and stops it from falling, but it gives it a gloss and sweetness which greatly adds to its beauty. Every woman should use Rexall '93' Hair Tonic as a dressing to the hair if she desires to keep her hair in the best condition."

—Mrs. J. C. HALL, Palmyra, N. Y.

THE STORY OF REXALL "93" HAIR TONIC.

Before placing REXALL "93" HAIR TONIC on the market we realized that we had a formula of exceptional value, and yet we determined to give it a thorough trial before we offered it as a Rexall preparation. We therefore wrote to one hundred druggists in as many cities, asking the name of one customer who suffered from a disease of the hair and scalp. To each of these customers we sent three bottles of the hair tonic and asked them to try it and report upon it.

THE RESULT: Five reported no answer, two reported adversely and NINETY-THREE sent enthusiastic reports of the remedy and gave details of the splendid effect in each individual case.

We therefore selected "NINETY-THREE" HAIR TONIC as the name of this preparation, which we believe to be the best. Could any other name be so significant of merit? Any test have been made fair? Any results more encouraging?

In buying REXALL "93" HAIR TONIC you take no chances whatever. If after a trial you are not more than satisfied we will promptly and cheerfully refund your money.

Aged Colored Woman of Oberlin Had All Her Money—Found Freezing and Starving.

Oberlin, O., Feb. 1.—The committee appointed for the distribution of the Carnegie fund has had its attention called to a most pitiful case of destitution. It is Mrs. Hannah Brown, an aged colored resident, residing on Railroad street. For the last several days the neighbors had seen nothing of her around her home, and Saturday night an investigation was undertaken. They found her lying under a canopy, half frozen and sick and with scarcely any clothing over her. She had not tasted food for several days and was apparently in a helpless condition. At first her pride would not allow her to seek aid from her friends and then her sickness prevented. For the last twenty-six years she has been a well known and highly respected resident of Oberlin, and until recently she had carried on an extensive laundry business among the students. As a result of several years' hard labor she had deposited in the Citizens' National bank $400 at the time of its failure. The thought of losing her entire possessions rendered her hysterical, and she has since been acting very strangely. The committee has immediately come to her relief and she is now receiving medical attention and the best of care.

SENT TO ASYLUM

For Working Hard—A Sandusky Man Who is Suffering From a Very Strange Disease.

Sandusky O., Feb. 1.—A division of opinion between alienists and laymen has developed here in a trial in the insanity court as to the causes which resulted in the commitment of Charles Cowles to the state hospital for the insane. Cowles is a carpenter, whose home has been in North Monroeville. Recently he developed an inordinate desire to work. Arising at 2 o'clock in the morning he would work until a late hour at night, putting in 16, 18 and 20 hours a day, with only a few minutes' sleep to take a bite of lunch. His friends, unconvinced, but instead of cutting him down to a normal hours, he worked longer, until, when taken into custody, he was sleeping only two hours a day. The doctor said that his dementia was caused by overwork. His friends insisted that his insanity caused him to overwork himself, and so stated on the witness stand. The jury did not attempt to decide which was correct, but ordered Cowles committed to the hospital. When you want a physic that is mild and gentle, easy to take and certain to be of service, use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

CANTON MEMORIAL

THOUSANDS GATHERED TO HEAR THE ADDRESSES.

Vice President Fairbanks, Governor, Judge Day and General Lee Were Present.

Canton, O., Feb. 1.—The Young Men's McKinley club of this city held a notable banquet, commemorating the birthday of the late President McKinley. Vice President-elect Fairbanks occupied the central position as chief guest of honor. Justice William R. Day, friend, neighbor and confidant of the late president, was master of ceremonies. To his left was General Fitzhugh Lee, idol and hero of the south. Vis-a-vis sat General Black, one of the heroes of the civil war and former commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. To either side of these guests were Governor Myron T. Herrick and Lieutenant Governor Warren G. Harding of Ohio.

In the banquet hall, flanking these guests and orators, were congressmen and ex-congressmen and party leaders from Ohio, as well as notables from remote distances. Down in the pit of the hall to the number of more than 800 were residents of Canton and many other persons prominent in state politics. Back and all around the diners the vast amphitheater section of the hall, with its capacity of 3,000 people, was almost completely filled with auditors who wished to hear the speaking. In the midst of the serving of the menu there was a sudden hush to the festivities, and almost as one man the vast assemblage arose to their feet and for more than a minute stood in respectful silence. The occasion was the arrival of Mrs. McKinley, wife of the late president. She was accompanied by a large party of friends, including Mrs. Day, Mrs. Fairbanks, Miss Grace McKinley, and Miss Black, daughter of General Black. They occupied a box during the speaking. Invocation by Rev. Dr. O. W. Holmes, pastor of the late president's church, was followed by the serving of the dinner, and then Justice Day, as toastmaster, opened the speaking.

"The aspiring youth of America," said Judge Day, "can have no safer guide to follow than that afforded in the life and career of William McKinley. Devotion to duty, public and private, is the keynote to his career, and the great lesson of a life beginning with a patriot's answer to his country's call to arms and, after many honors and the highest place in his country's gift, ending with the martyr's crown and a place with the immortal few, not born to die."

"We pause," said Governor Herrick, "strong in the consciousness of the unseen presence of our dead friend, to look back over the past and revive our memories of the beautiful character and noble achievements of William McKinley, and cut a little deeper on the emblematic white marble his undying record, which has become an integral part of the life of our state and nation. Who shall say that such a career is not an inspiration, a living lesson for our millions of free people, and for all who shall come after them?"

Lieutenant Governor Harding remarked: "Among the greater services rendered his country, the grandest achievement of the martyred McKinley was the winning of the south to the concord of union and purpose and pride that was vital to the onward course of the nation. And it seems to me that if, in the crowning wreaths of immortality, there is separate bloom for every noble achievement, the angel of the south will place on William McKinley's brow the richest garland that may blossom there."

Vice President Fairbanks: "President McKinley's administration will rank among the most successful in our national history. The most beloved among our fellow men was stricken at the very summit of his power. All our philosophy could not fathom the profound mystery. A crime so causeless had never crimsoned the pages of our history. He alone interpreted the sad and tragic event. With unflinching trust he said: 'It is God's way. His will, not ours, be done.' In good time there will arise in yonder tranquil city of the dead an imposing mausoleum erected by the gratitude of his countrymen. There it will stand through the ages, long after we shall have lived and wrought our brief hour."

THE W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. meeting was held at 2 o'clock in the First M. E. church parlors yesterday afternoon. The devotional services consisted of singing and prayer. Mrs. Stillwell read the lesson from the 1st Psalm. Responsive reading followed, after which Mrs. W. W. Anderson read an excellent paper on auto-arrogance. On February 7th there will be heard reports of the superintendents and other business matters will be attended to. Let all the members be present.

WASHINGTON NEWS

Amendment to Army Bill.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Mr. Williams of Mississippi, the minority leader, tried to secure the adoption of the senate amendment to the house provision regarding retired officers serving with the state militia. Messrs. Hull of Iowa and Hay of Virginia, both members of the military affairs committee, endorsed the house provision making it retroactive. The latter declared it was Democratic doctrine to save money, and for that reason called upon the Democrats to stand by the committee. Mr. Williams arose and spoke of the action of General Miles in placing shackles upon the ankles of Jefferson Davis when the latter was a prisoner at Fort Monroe. He shared, he said, the opinion of southern men as to that, but he did not think it was the time the place nor the way to get even. Mr. Williams' motion to agree to the senate amendment, which does not make the law concerning retired officers retroactive, was lost—71 to 171. The bill was then sent to conference.

Decision Pleases the President.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The president and Attorney General Moody shared in the congratulations of the members of the cabinet on the result of the "beef trust" case before the supreme court. The president, who made no attempt to conceal his satisfaction at the decision of the court, united with the members of the cabinet in congratulating the attorney general. The subject was considered briefly at the meeting, but no definite conclusion was reached as to what action, if any, the government would take in the future, except the general determination to enforce the law as it has been construed by the courts. The president and the members of the cabinet regard the decision of the supreme court as a signal triumph of law as they have viewed it, and are prepared to carry it into effect absolutely.

President Contributes.

Washington, Feb. 1.—It was announced that President Roosevelt has made a substantial contribution to the Hanna Memorial Club association, which was organized for the purpose of establishing a chair at the Western Reserve university in Cleveland.

In the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The senate continued the consideration of the joint statehood bill, with Mr. Nelson as the principal speaker. A number of bills were passed, including one largely increasing the fees for incorporating stock companies in the District of Columbia.

WHY DOCTORS FAIL AND MRS. PINKHAM SUCCEEDS

Plain Reasons Are Here Given to Explain Why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cures When Doctors Are Powerless

A woman is sick; some disease peculiar to her sex is fast developing in her system. She goes to her family physician and tells him a story, but not the whole story.

She holds something back, loses her head, becomes agitated, forgets what she wants to say, and finally conceals what she ought to have told, and thus completely mystifies the doctor.

Is it any wonder, therefore, that the doctors fail to cure the disease? Still we cannot blame the woman for it is very embarrassing to detail some of the symptoms of her suffering, even to her family physician.

It was for this reason that years ago Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., determined to step in and help her sex. Having had considerable experience in treating female ills with her Vegetable Compound, she encouraged the women of America to write to her for advice in regard to their complaints, and being a woman, it was easy for her ailing sisters to pour into her ears every detail of their suffering.

In this way she was able to do for them what the physicians were unable to do, simply because she had the proper information to work upon, and from the little group of women who sought her advice years ago a great army of her fellow-beings are to-day constantly applying for advice and relief, and the fact that many thousands of them have been cured by following the advice of Mrs. Pinkham during the last year is indicative of the grand results which are produced by her unequalled experience and training.

No physician in the world has had such a training, or has such an amount of information at hand to assist in the treatment of all kinds of female ills, from the simplest local irritation to the most complicated womb diseases.

This, therefore, is the reason why Mrs. Pinkham, in her laboratory at Lynn, Mass., is able to do more for the ailing women of America than the family physician. Any woman, therefore, is responsible for her own suffering, who will not take the trouble to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice.

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

GIRL DANCED WITH DEATH

After Swallowing a Dose of Morphine With Suicidal Intent, a St. Louis Maid Repented and Escaped Death by Hair's Breadth.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 1.—After having taken a large dose of morphine Miss Maggie Head, living at 202 North Thirteenth street, danced with death for six hours in a hall room to shake off the effects of the deadly drug. She took the poison with suicidal intent. In half an hour she changed her mind and wanted to live. She knew that constant exercise would overcome the influence of morphine. She went to the hall and danced incessantly through waltzes, square dances, two-steps and schottisches.

The most eager dancer on the floor, she attracted the attention of youths, and no offer to dance was refused. The mad whirl of the room to her was a fight for life, and the lads who clasped her about the waist as they waltzed did not know that her smile instead of being for them was a smile of triumph over death.

At 3 o'clock a. m. the dance was over and she returned to her room. So weary was she from her efforts that temptation overcame her and she lay down, thinking she would manage to keep awake. But soon the drowsiness began to creep on and she knew that her battle was not yet over.

She tried to rise to her feet, but it was too late. The powerful poison had her in its deadly thrall, and she could not move. Her limbs seemed weighted with lead. But she could speak, and, raising her voice, she called loudly for help. Inmates of the house rushed to her room. She told them she was suffering from morphine poisoning and they hastily sent her to the city hospital, where she arrived at 4:20 a. m.

At the hospital two attendants supported her on either side and walked to and fro in the corridors until 6 o'clock. The battle was won then and she was allowed to rest.

SPOT OF GREEN

WAS SEEN ON A MINCE PIE IN ERIE COUNTY

So Strickfaden Had His Wife and Her Former Admirer Put Behind Prison Bars.

Sandusky, O., Feb. 3.—Mrs. William Strickfaden and Charles McCauley, living at Milan, were arrested late yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Luff, the former being charged with attempt to poison, while the latter is held as an accomplice.

McCauley disappeared with the Strickfaden woman several weeks ago, it is said, and after being absent for about a week they returned home. After a reconciliation the Strickfaden woman again took up her residence with her husband, Wm. Strickfaden, who is employed at the Hoover plant at Avery. When he opened his dinner pail at noon he discovered a green spot on the crust of a piece of mince pie. Suspecting poison, he showed the pie to several co-workers and all of them said it was Paris green. He returned to Milan as soon as possible and after showing the piece to Mayor Curtis, swore out a warrant for his wife's arrest charging her with attempt to kill. The Strickfaden woman was not placed in jail, but she is being guarded at her home by two women and one man.

Mayor Curtis in an interview said that enough Paris green was in the pie to kill several people. According to the story as told by Strickfaden his wife had been in the habit of fixing her husband's dinner in his presence, but yesterday morning she fixed it in the pantry behind closed doors. McCauley is a farmhand and is employed on a farm near Avery. He was placed in the Milan jail early this evening. He refuses to make any statement aside from saying that he had nothing to do with it.

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivalled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a pestiferous parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Securing the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE LICKING LAUNDRY

VALENTINE'S DAY

SUGGESTIONS FOR PLEASURES OF THE OCCASION.

Clever Games That Are Appropriate for Valentine Parties.—The Date is Almost at Hand.

With the approach of Valentine day—and it is only 13 days in the future—the thoughts of Valentine parties are filling the minds of many expectant hostesses.

There can be little novelty in the celebration of the day—the individuality of the affair must come from the hostess herself, in her ability to make old things seem like new. Of course the house must be generously bedecked with hearts, red ones preferably, for some unknown reason rose tints are always synonymous with love and lovers.

A hunt for sandy hearts is great sport. They may be tucked in all sorts of out of the way places and the hunt should, of course, be made in couples, each couple carrying a small basket in which to carry their spoils. The time for the hunt should be limited and the prize may be any heart-shaped trifle.

The motto candies may also be made the foundation for a very amusing game which is modeled after the fashion of the "cross questions and silly answers" of our childhood days. The girls and men should be put on opposite sides of the room and a heart shaped box of mottoes with questions passed to the men; a similar box full of answers should be distributed to the girls and as the couples read in turn the fun waxes fast and furious for the questions and answers rarely "hit."

An archery contest is also jolly. A large heart is drawn upon a sheet which is tightly stretched across a doorway is the target and each guest is provided with a tiny bow and arrow with which to try his skill. The contest is a pretty and graceful one. Innumerable ways may be devised to send the guests out to supper. Love couplets may be matched for instance, or ribbons with candy hearts at the end may be hung over a door—half in one room and half in the other. Each man and each maid chooses a fluttering streamer and the person at the other end is their fate—till supper is over at least.

Of course the refreshments must be as characteristic of the day as possible—the sandwiches should be in heart shape, the ice cream frozen in heart shaped molds, and kisses served with it of course.

While there is life there is hope. I was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marcus G. Shantz, Rahway, N. J.

Cream Balm reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H.

BISHOP POTTER

DEFENDS HIS RECENT ACTION IN NEW YORK

In Opening the Subway Tavern—
What the Bishop Says is Given Below.

Bishop Potter, in vigorous terms, defends his recent action in being present at the opening of the subway tavern in New York.

"I know little of the subway tavern," the Bishop began, "although it is supposed by many persons that I am making money out of it. I have never been in it but once—that was the day of the opening. My office is a different one, but not nearly so interesting. Ideas in the abstract are always less interesting than any form of expressions. Three years ago in a charge to the clergy I expressed a basis has struck at the foundations of morality. He said that a concoction of prune juice and whisky as a tonic was consumed by women behind closed doors, and that medical men recommended another one which contained 66 per cent of alcohol, while claret has only 10 per cent.

The methods of certain reformers he characterized as contributing to the moral degradation of the country. They are laws and teach their children to lie, and the whole thing is hollow and delusive.

His recommendation for saving men from their appetites was to teach them self-control. "For many the only safety lies in total abstinence, but that is an individual matter."

"The ale house, the saloon and the corner grocery," he said in conclusion, "will continue to be the club of the poor man until you and I give him the club of which Mr. Johnson will now tell you."

Mr. Johnson then described the subway tavern and said it has driven three saloons in the neighborhood out the same ideas as those which have taken form in the subway tavern. The public took them with equanimity, regarding them as sort of moral pyrotechnics.

"I was good to you, Mr. Johnson," said the Bishop, turning to the manager of the subway tavern. "I did not make you read all the abusive letters I got. The singing of the long meter doxology was thought to be essentially and offensively profane."

Bishop Potter said that in some countries the evils of intemperance were due to conditions of underfeeding, in others to a condition of gloom, and in others to hardships involving great exposure.

"Whatever its cause," he asserted, "the rate that is most conspicuous is the individual man. Shall I shock any one if I say that it is our principal mental constitution because God put it there?"

"Do you know what goes on in the country, especially in prohibition states? Is there a man here who will say there is the smallest difficulty in getting a drink in Portland, Maine, or Toledo, Kansas?"

The only difference between those cities and New York is that in Portland and Toledo police go to the liquor and put a sign in the man who serves them.

The Bishop remarked that a good but deliberately places its 31 on 300 of business, although one had started up again.

"Let us be thankful," he said, "that New York can claim a priest who is not only a Bishop but a man."

SHATTERED

Are the Hopes of the Depositors of the Pan-American Bank in the Windy City.

Chicago, Feb. 1.—The hopes of the depositors of the defunct Pan-American bank were badly shattered by the evidence of the expert accountants given before a master in chancery. The total liabilities of the bank were stated to be $114,078 and the actual value of the assets at no more than $15,000. The amount of deposits in the bank at the time of its failure was $88,575. It was also stated by the paying teller of the institution that the amount of cash in the bank was never more than $5,000, and was sometimes as low as $200.
